

Clergy Daughters Fund

ABOUT THE CLERGY DAUGHTERS FUND

In 1849 a benefactor left to the Diocese a sum of money that established the Clergy Daughter's Fund. The Fund distributes income annually "to support the education of daughters of clergy (living or deceased) of the Protestant Episcopal Church, who do not have adequate means to provide the advantage of superior training, with the aim of raising pious, well-educated females, who shall be useful to their families and as teachers, governesses, etc."

This modest diocesan resource is still available today to assist canonically resident clergy in meeting the educational costs of their daughters in private school or college. At present, the fund yields $5,000 to about $10,000 per year.
